Please Note: The Storage Container Permit shall be valid for ninety days. Upon the request of the owner or occupant of the site to renew such permit, the Construction Code Official shall inspect the site where the Temporary Storage Container is located to determine whether such permit shall be extended. Such permit may be extended up to two additional ninety day periods upon the approval of the Construction Code Official. A renewal fee of $25.00 shall be paid for upon request for the extension of such permit for each ninety day additional period. In no event shall a container be placed on any Borough lot for more than 270 days.
